CHANGEMAKERS' ROOM

Changemakers' Room is an international seven-day long Training Forum, gathering grassroots practitioners, youth workers, young leaders and innovators from across the globe to identify the problems they want to solve; form working groups to ideate solutions and build long-lasting partnerships.

Since the launch of the Forum in 2016, Changemakers' Room has been successful in creating an international network of committed community leaders leading social impact projects in Asia, Europe & Africa: facilitating cross-continental collaboration for stronger local impact.

Changemakers learn social innovation tools & frameworks to either launch international impact projects or develop sustainable business ideas. Make Room supports these projects/ideas through its network of NGOs, corporations & think-tanks.

A CHANGE-

MAKER

Make Room was first established in 2016 as “Make Room India”, following the 13th European Union – India Summit where European Commission President Jean Claude Juncker, Council of Europe President Donald Tusk and Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi reconfirmed their commitment to jointly strengthen the Strategic Partnership between European Union and India. The partnership was established to strengthen the collaboration between the European Union and India in a wide range of areas for cooperation such as foreign and security policy, trade and investment, economy, global issues as well as people to people contacts and human rights.

Make Room India was launched as an independently organized Social Change Ecosystem creating and strengthening civil society’s cooperation to drive positive social change between the European Union and India.

Since then, Make Room has grown to become a Global Social Change Ecosystem - a unique platform for impact-oriented intellectual, cultural and personal interactions between changemakers of Europe and the rest of the world.

Make Room fosters civil dialogue and creates impact-oriented partnerships between individuals and organizations of Europe and the rest of the world facilitating dialogue to create effective initiatives developing innovative, sustainable and easily-replicable solutions to problems found in both - Europe and elsewhere.

Make Room drives positive social change globally from its representations in Latvia, Italy, Romania, Cyprus, India and Nigeria.

* * *

Make Room started its journey in 2016 with the first Changemakers' Room Forum in Bengaluru, India. The first edition gathered 47 grassroots practitioners - community activists, social entrepreneurs, NGO and public institution representatives from 23 countries. The first Forum put Make Room as the core Ecosystem creating and strengthening civil society's cooperation to drive positive social change between the European Union and India.

In 2017, the Make Room enlarged its work and continued with the Forum in Goa, India. In 2018 Make Room launched its representation in Africa and gathered 43 changemakers from across the world in Lagos, Nigeria.

Now, after 3 successful Forums, Make Room has established itself as a Global Social Change Ecosystem with representations across 3 continents in Latvia, Italy, Romania, Cyprus, India, and Nigeria. Currently, the concept of the Changemakers' Room has been revised and heavily improved identifying some of the world's most pressing issues, proposing solutions and developing international projects, as well as, launching impact-driven social businesses globally.

To solve the world's most pressing problems collaboration among people, nations, political and economic unions is paramount. Connecting the world is no longer a choice, but an imperative.

Social Innovations addressing global goals need a collective global ecosystem where ideas turn into action, intent becomes impact & innovations and changemakers can co-create. Make Room Global is one of the ecosystems pioneering youth-led development across sectors.

This edition of Changemakers' Room envisions to identify 60 changemakers from across the globe to not only identify currently pressing issues and develop solutions but also to continuing building an impact-driven movement developing relevant social businesses and international mobility projects. If you are passionate about solving a locally relevant issue, have a valid solution and, if you are eager to drive positive social change this call is right for you!
